The Johnson County Daily Journal also has coverage of the Governor's travels yesterday and the Congressman's travels today with regard to touring the communities of Indiana hit hardest by the tornadoes earlier this week.

Indiana will apply for federal assistance as soon as all of the assessments come back, which could be as early as today, Daniels said. U.S. Rep. Mike Pence, whose district includes Camp Atterbury and Edinburgh, pledged to support any proposed federal assistance.