Indiana Diversity Focus Newspaper has more coverage on Congressman Pence's visit over the weekend to the grand opening of President Abraham Lincoln's cottage
.

Indiana lawmaker Mike Pence brought his family. His son is not much older than Lincoln's son Tad when he had fun dressing up as a soldier and hanging out with the real ones.

" Coming here, I just had no real understanding of how Lincoln felt about his family ," said Michael Pence, the congressman's son.