The Columbus Republic reports on Congressman Pence's visit to Columbus East HS here .

Excerpt: Allison Ritzline, a junior at East, said she was surprised Pence took the time to speak with high school students.
"I mean, he gets to talk to the president and all these other really important people, and then he comes to talk to us," she said.
"It just shows how much he cares about the hometowns he represents."