The Forth Worth Star Telegram is running a great column by the Heritage Foundation's Ken McIntyre on the Fairness Doctrine here .

Excerpt: The stakes are huge, says Pence, a former radio talker himself. If liberals succeed in setting the standards for political content on the public airwaves, he warns, "free talk radio would wither on the vine."