Congressman Pence's "527 Fairness Act" was passed out of the House Administration Committee yesterday and is expected to be considered by the full House sometime this summer. You can read more in today's Washington Times .