Congressman Pence appeared on MSNBC to discuss energy policy, in light of the energy summit held today by the American Energy Solutions Group, of which he is Chairman. Other topics that came up included the President's policy on Guantanamo Bay and the late Jack Kemp:

The House Republican Conference live-blogged the event, which can be found HERE .

Photos from the event are available below: