Congressman Mike Pence and Congressman Jeb Hensarling appeared on the CSPAN program "Washington Journal" this morning to discuss the Constitutional amendment he is offering with Congressman Hensarling and Congressman John Campbell to limit federal spending to 20% of GDP.

More information on the Spending Limit Amendment is available HERE (one pager) and a longer summary is HERE.

Excerpts below:

Why a Constitutional Amendment?

Why now?

Where were you during the Bush Administration on spending?

When will the spending end? Is it too late? What is the proper size/role of government?

On the relationship between taxes and growth and how big the size of government should be:

On the prospects for a Constitutional amendment:
