The Fort Wayne News-Sentinel editorialized today that

We haven't quite gotten to the point where any representative or senator voting for the toxic health care reform being rammed through Congress will be kicked out of office, but it's very close to that. Americans' wishes are being ignored, and they won't forget it in November.

Full editorial available HERE .