Today Congressman Pence met with a group of constituents from northeast Indiana. Communities represented in the group included Columbia City, Decatur, Fort Wayne, and Monroe. The group is spending four days in Washington this week.