This week the Boy Scouts of America is holding its annual Jamboree event near Washington. This year's event celebrates the group's 100th anniversary. Today Scouts from Anderson in town for the event visited with Congressman Pence. Each Scout presented Congressman Pence with a personalized letter.

249