Congressman Pence with State Representative Cleo Duncan

Yesterday Indiana Governor Mitch Daniels presented the Sagamore of the Wabash Award to State Representative Cleo Duncan of Greensburg
. Today Congressman Pence wrote to Rep. Duncan to congratulate her on this high honor:

October 6, 2010

Dear Cleo,

It is my honor to congratulate you on receiving the Sagamore of the Wabash Award for your 16 years of outstanding service in the Indiana General Assembly. I can think of no one else who deserves this award more than you. You have been a true servant to eastern Indiana, and for that I thank you.

The Good Book says, “As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace.” During your 16 years in the General Assembly, you used your gifts of service and leadership to make a vast impact in your community and in our state. I commend you for the impact you’ve had on the lives of those around you.

I am grateful for the friendship and kindness you have given me over the years. It is my hope that you enjoy the rest and relaxation that comes with retirement.

Sincerely,
Mike Pence
Member of Congress
