WASHINGTON, DC - U.S. Congressman Mike Pence welcomed Samantha Scheidenberger and her mother Donna to Washington, where they will join other national winners at a reception and events in their honor.

"I am extremely proud of Sam, as I know her family, teachers and community are, that her work will be representing the Sixth Congressional District in the Capitol Building," Pence said.

The future for this young lady is bright and I look forward to hearing of her future

All