U.S. Congressman Mike Pence participated in a roundtable meeting with Madison County hospital officials and health care professionals in Anderson today to discuss health care legislation currently pending before Congress as well as ideas for reform.