

The Indianapolis Star is running an article today about the different positions that Hoosier lawmakers have taken on the auto bailout. It states that Congressman Pence has expressed "strong opposition" and quotes him as saying

"It exposes the American taxpayer to more debt, fails to reorganize the domestic auto manufacturers to ensure long-term success and does not fix the immediate credit crisis" Congressman Pence's statement is available

HERE