Today Congressman Pence was honored to meet with veterans at the World War II Memorial in Washington, D.C. These great American heroes traveled to our nation's capital from Shelby, Rush, Hancock, and Henry counties with the Knightstown American Legion through the Honor Flight Network program.