

...that's the title of Laura Litvan's column today on Bloomberg News.

Pence, 49, is one of the most outspoken conservatives in the congressional leadership and will be an important player in any plan to lead Republicans back to power.

A former talk radio host, he is also the freshest face on the Republican leadership team in the chamber. He earlier chaired the Republican Study Committee -- a group of more than 100 House Republicans who endorse Reagan's principles.
