

WTHR takes a look at the stance of Indiana Republicans towards the possible bailout of the auto industry.

The state's Republicans are expressing some skepticism about an proposed plan to bail out the so-called "big three." In Indianapolis Thursday, Senator Richard Lugar told Eyewitness News the worldwide economic crisis is the biggest threat currently confronting this country. The article also quotes Congressman Pence as saying

"I think we need to go to the American people and say the truth is we need some fast acting tax relief to release not the power of the treasury but the power of the American economy," said Pence. Read the rest HERE .