"We now have a deal that promises to bring near-term stability to our financial turmoil, but at what price? " the Columbus Republican wrote in a statement to his colleagues today. "Economic freedom means the freedom to succeed and the freedom to fail. The decision to give the federal government the ability to nationalize almost every bad mortgage in America interrupts this basic truth of our free market economy

Spokesmen for most of the eight other Indiana members of the House said their lawmakers are still reviewing the plan and haven't decided how they will vote.

The Hill: " Rank and file GOPers not thrilled by deal "

Rep. Mike Pence (R-Ind.) urged fellow Republicans to oppose the deal in a letter.

"The decision to give the federal government the ability to nationalize almost every bad mortgage in America interrupts this basic truth of our free market economy ," Pence wrote. Repu blicans improved this bill but it remains the largest corporate bailout in American history, forever changes the relationship between government and the financial sector, and passes the cost along to the American people. I cannot support it

Pence added, "Before you vote, ask yourself why you came here and vote with courage and integrity to those principles...If you came here because you believe in limited government and the freedom of the American marketplace, vote in accordance with those convictions

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette: " Loss of trust, confidence plagues Bush "

"The strength of America resides in our faith in God and our faith in freedom, including our economic freedom. To have the freedom to succeed, we must also have the freedom to fail, and any solution to the present crisis must preserve that essential economic liberty ," Rep. Mike Pence, R-Ind., said.
