

Congressman Pence is getting district media coverage regarding his reaction to the turmoil in the financial markets and how the federal government is responding.

WISH-TV's Jim Shella : " Pence leads GOP bailout backlash "

"I'm very troubled about what amounts to nationalizing one of the largest businesses in this country ," said Pence. Pence said that recent White House actions could cause the U.S. economy to look more like the economy of France. He was unmoved by the president's comments Thursday.

"The American people can be sure we will continue to act to strengthen and stabilize our financial markets and improve investor confidence," said Bush.

Pence is worried about keeping the federal government financially strong. Instead of orchestrating bailouts, the president, he said, should address the weak dollar and the high cost of energy.

"Now's the time for us to be dealing with the root causes of this economic downturn and not simply opening the cash window at the federal reserve and writing one bailout check after another ," said Pence.
