PENCE ANNOUNCES FEMA REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE ON HAND FOR 7th ANNUAL JOB FAIR

Washington, Jul 29, 2003 - MUNCIE, IN - Congressman Mike Pence announced today that officials from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) will be on hand to answer questions and provide support for flood victims at the Seventh Annual Sixth Congressional District Job Fair on Friday, August 1st. The Job Fair is aimed at matching Hoosier job seekers with local businesses.

“I am pleased that FEMA representatives will be on hand to assist flood victims from eastern Indiana,” said Pence. “The financial assistance from the federal government will be a great help to families and businesses affected by the flood and the FEMA representatives will provide the necessary support to ensure these funds are used effectively.”

The 7th Annual Job Fair will be held at Worthen Arena on Ball State University’s campus in Muncie. The Job Fair will begin at 10:00 a.m. and will end at 4:00 p.m., Friday, August 1st.

“We expect nearly 60 businesses to participate in this year’s Job Fair at Ball State University,” said Pence. “If you are looking for a job, or if you are an employer seeking great workers, join us at the 7th Annual Job Fair.”

As in previous years, Kindercare Learning Center will be providing free child care for jobseekers and resume writing assistance will be available.
