"Next To Voting, Filling Out The Census Is The Most Valuable Civic Duty"

WASHINGTON, DC - U.S. Congressman Mike Pence issued the following statement today, urging all Hoosiers to fill out their 2010 U.S. Census form:

"Next to voting, filling out the census is the most valuable civic duty. Under the Constitution of the United States, every Hoosier and every American is entitled to a fair, accurate and apolitical count in the decennial Census and I urge full and timely participation."

More information is available on Congressman Pence's website HERE and at the 2010 Census website HERE
.