Over the weekend, Union County High School senior Ethan Boggs graduated high school with perfect attendance. Boggs never missed a day of school in 13 years. Congressman Pence wrote to Ethan to congratulate him on his accomplishment:

June 14, 2010
Dear Ethan,

It is my honor and privilege to congratulate you on your thirteen years of perfect attendance. This is no small achievement.

Your sustained work ethic and initiative to attend each day of school combined with your ambition to succeed is a great example to the students of Union County High School and your local community.

It is with sincere respect that I pay tribute to your dedication and hard work. I commend you for your drive and your never give up attitude.

Congratulations on your graduation from Union County High School and best wishes in the future. I look forward to hearing of your continued success.

Sincerely,

Mike Pence
Member of Congress
Sixth District, Indiana
