Provides Law Enforcement with Tools Needed to Combat Terrorism

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Congressman Mike Pence supported a four-year extension of the USA PATRIOT Improvement and Reauthorization Act and the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act. Had no action been taken, these provisions were to expire at midnight tonight, May 26, 2011. The extension passed the U.S. House of Representatives by 250-153.

Click here to view remarks that Rep. Pence gave in February on the extension of these provisions.