Pence honors slain Marine at town hall meeting

COLUMBUS, Ind. — U.S. Rep. Mike Pence, R-Ind., paid tribute to fallen Marine Sgt. Jeremy McQueary during a town hall meeting Friday at Columbus Learning Center.

Pence presented a plaque to McQueary's mother, Debbie Kleinschmidt, and to his stepfather, David Kleinschmidt, both of whom reside in Columbus.

The Kleinschmidts gave Pence a picture of McQueary, who died Feb. 18 during a combat offensive in Afghanistan's Helmand Province.
