

The Indianapolis Star reports :

At an emergency meeting Wednesday night, the White River Township Board voted unanimously to re-appropriate $70,000 to aid clean-up efforts from the weekend flooding.

"Hoosier families in Bartholomew and Johnson counties can breathe a sigh of relief. Help is on the way ," Pence said in the release, adding that he was grateful to FEMA for its quick response.