Anderson, IN—U.S. Congressman Mike Pence announced today that the Adams County Substance Abuse Awareness Council was awarded a $125,000 grant by the Office of National Drug Control Policy under the Drug Free Communities Support Program.

"This grant will be used to help Adams County in their goal of creating a healthy, safe and drug free community," said Pence. "I commend the Adams County Substance Abuse Awareness Council for being one of 87 new grantees selected from 452 applicants."
