Congressman Pence introduced an amendment Thursday that would not allow any taxpayer funds to go to Planned Parenthood, the country's number one provider of abortions. The Pence amendment was soundly supported by the pro-life community. LifeNews.com and ProLifeBlogs.com both published articles in support of the Pence amendment. Click on the links to read the articles.