To My Friends at the Wounded Warrior Benefit:

Simply put, the sacrifice of the men and women of the United States Armed Forces, l Corps Corporal Murphy Hueston has not only kept our homeland free from the attack determined enemy, but has preserved freedom for all Americans and provided the ho for millions more.

Our wounded warriors are the true heroes of this nation. I have had the distinct honor many brave individuals like Cpl. Hueston throughout my time in Congress, whether h or overseas.

Each time I meet a wounded warrior, I am moved by their stories of survival and awe resolve. After suffering injuries because of an IED explosion, Cpl. Hueston endured t hardships of multiple surgeries and amputation. Despite his injury, Cpl. Hueston has that he looked forward to the day he could use his experience to help other wounded a physical therapist.

Corporal Murphy Hueston is one example of the thousands of soldiers who have answ call of duty in spite of the risks. The legacy of our wounded warriors is that they have entire nation about bravery, sacrifice, commitment and honor because those qualities found in each and every one of them.

May God lift up all the brave men and women injured in service to this grateful natio

Sincerely,

Mike Pence
Member of Congress
