Washington, D.C.—U.S. Congressman Mike Pence, a member of the House Judiciary Committee, released the following statement today thanking retiring Indiana Supreme Court Justice Randall Shepard for his service:

"Every Hoosier owes a debt of gratitude to Chief Justice Randall Shepard for his service on the Indiana Supreme Court and I wish him the best in his retirement. As the longest-serving leader of a state Supreme Court in the country, Chief Justice Shepard's commitment to a fair and impartial judiciary has earned him a national reputation and his many contributions outside the Indiana Supreme Court will be long appreciated by Hoosiers."
