Washington, D.C. – U.S. Congressman Mike Pence congratulated one of his Congressional aides, Lindsey Craig of Muncie, for receiving the Susan B. Anthony List Young Leader Award. Craig has worked for Rep. Pence as a Legislative Assistant in his Washington, D.C. office since January 2009. For more information on the award, go to http://www.sba-list.org/YLaward.

"Lindsey has been a relentless advocate for the unborn," said Pence. "I want to congratulate her for receiving the Susan B. Anthony List Young Leader Award and thank her for her tireless work to protect the rights of those who cannot fight for themselves. She has done Muncie proud and is very deserving of this high honor."

###

From L - R: Barb Canan (Lindsey's mother), Lindsey Craig (award recipient), Rep. Mike Pence