Anderson, IN – U.S. Congressman Mike Pence issued the following statement today regarding the passing of Father Joe McNally, a former pastor of St. Bartholomew/St. Columba in Columbus:

"I am deeply saddened by the passing of Father Mac," said Pence. "His heart for people and service to the Lord made him not just a wonderful priest, but a leader of compassion for our entire community. I will always count his example of faith and compassion as one of the great influences in my early life. Karen and I extend our deepest prayers and condolences to his extended family, friends and to all who mourn the loss of this great man."

###