In case you missed it, the Republican Leader John Boehner has an op-ed in today's *USA Today that outlines why the Democrat spending bill received no Republican votes:

The American people deserve better than what congressional Democrats have offered them. After Wednesday's vote, President Obama said, "I hope that we can continue to strengthen this plan before it gets to my desk." Republicans couldn't agree more. Let's hope Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill feel the same way.
