My first run for a seat in the U.S. Congress was in 1988, at the age of 29. During that campaign, I had the chance to meet President Reagan at a photo opportunity in the Blue Room of the White House.

You can read more about it, and see the picture in today's Roll Call .