Today was the 18th legislative day since Congress officially adjourned - yet House Republicans have not given up fighting on behalf of their constituents and all Americans to give Americans more access to American oil.

CSPAN has the press conference video available HERE .

Also, RedState posted in defense of what Congressman Pence and his colleagues in the Republican Conference are trying to accomplish.