The Columbus Republic , Congressman Pence's hometown newspaper, reported on Governor Daniels touring the storm-damaged parts of Indiana and also mentioned Congressman Pence's travels today around the district.

Gov. Mitch Daniels and other officials toured parts of central Indiana Thursday to see the damage caused by the state's latest bout of severe weather.

Daniels joined Indiana National Guard Gen. Martin Umbarger at tornado-damaged Camp Atterbury. The Guard said two soldiers suffered minor injuries Tuesday night as they sought shelter from the tornado, which had wind speeds reaching an estimated 130 mph...

U.S. Rep. Mike Pence, R-Ind., will tour Camp Atterbury and Edinburgh today. Pence had planned to visit the area Thursday, but his flight from Washington was cancelled.
