The Wall Street Journal has an interesting story this morning on the outlook for a national media shield bill in the next Congress. Congressman Pence introduced The Free Flow of Information Act in the last Congress with Indiana Senator Dick Lugar.