

The Herald Bulletin has an editorial on the hiring practices of the new Honda plant in Decatur County. Click here to read the full story.

Excerpt: Pence said he was disappointed in the Honda decision and hopes the company revisits its restrictions. He also noted that federal law allows companies to base hiring on a geographic area.