

Congressman Pence will guest host the Family Research Council's Washington Watch Weekly radio show this Saturday. Pence will address the nomination of Judge John Roberts to the U.S. Supreme Court and the status of stem cell legislation. He will also interview Dick Patten, executive director of the American Family Business Institute about the status of legislation to get rid of the Death Tax.

Check www.frcradio.org for local times and stations.