

Congressman Pence participated in a press conference today held by the Rural America Solutions Group to highlight the adverse impact that "cap-and-tax" would have on rural America. This national energy tax legislation would have a particularly devastating effect on the Midwest, especially Indiana.

Congressman Pence has called this bill an "economic declaration of war on the Midwest."

Read his op-ed on this national energy tax

HERE

; pictures from today's press conference are available below: