

Congressman Pence today honored Mauri Williamson, a Wayne County native who recently had the Pioneer Village barn at the Indiana State Fair named in his honor . Congressman Pence's letter follows:

August 20, 2010

Dear Mauri,

It is my honor and privilege to congratulate you on receiving the tribute of having a barn in the Pioneer Village named after you.

I am encouraged to hear about all of the great works of service you have done for the Pioneer Village at the State Fair. I can think of no one who deserves this tribute more than you. Your desire to preserve Hoosier history and nostalgia not only benefits those in your community but everyone in this great state of Indiana.

Again, please accept my sincere congratulations on this great achievement. I look forward to visiting Williamson Barn when I go to the State Fair. It is my hope that you will continue to serve with the same devotion to leadership in the community for many years to come.

Sincerely,
Mike Pence
Member of Congress
