

Congressman Pence today honored Columbus East High School teacher Greg Lewis, who was recently named Indiana's 2010 Preserve America History Teacher of the Year .

Congressman Pence's letter follows:

October 12, 2010

Dear Mr. Lewis,

It is my honor and privilege to congratulate you on being named Indiana's 2010 Preserve America History Teacher of the Year. This award is a testament to the dedication you have shown to your students, their families, and the subject of American history.

I am encouraged to hear of your commitment to helping those you teach achieve both academic and personal success. Your innovative teaching techniques and passion for American history is reflected in the achievements of your students. I can think of no one who deserves this award more than you. You are an inspiration to your peers all over the great state of Indiana.

Best wishes as you continue your service. I look forward to hearing of your future success.

Sincerely,
Mike Pence
