Congressman Pence on the floor of the U.S. House on March 6, 2009.

with 181 cosponsors in the House-including every House Republican:

"Defending the freedoms enshrined in our Constitution is the paramount interest of every Member of the American Congress.

"Every American who cherishes the freedom of our radio airwaves should be encouraged to know that a growing number in Congress are taking a stand against government censorship. But the fight is long from over.

"While I applaud those who have consistently defended the American People's right to a free and independent press on the airwaves of America, there are still those in Congress who have advocated for the federal government to be the arbiter of free speech.

"America is a nation of freedom and strong opinion-our government must not be afraid to entrust the American people with all the facts and opinions necessary to make the choices as an informed electorate.

"If this vital legislation to block the FCC from reinstating the so-called "Fairness Doctrine" is brought to the floor of this Congress, it will surely pass-because every time freedom gets an up-or-down vote in the People's House, freedom always wins."
