

Pence Nominates SOUTH ADAMS High School Student for U.S. Naval and Merchant Marine Academy

Washington, DC —U.S. Congressman Mike Pence has nominated Kegan Sprunger of South Adams High School for the U.S. Naval and Merchant Marine Academy.

“I congratulate Kegan for his tremendous record of service to the people of Berne and for his academic achievements. He is a young man who has demonstrated a strong commitment to his community and to his country.”

Kegan is involved in the Substance Abuse Awareness Council, varsity track, tennis and bowling, and the South Adams High School Student Council.

Sprunger is the son of Lew and Sandy Sprunger of Berne.
